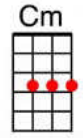
Miss the Mississippi and You - G

Words and Music by Bill Halley - 1932


```
G            E7           Am
I'm growing tired of the big city lights,
A                         A7           D
Tired of the glamour and tired of the sights.
C                       E7          Am
In all my dreams I am roaming once more,
A7                      D7
Back to my home on the old river shore.

G                    C             Cm
I am sad and weary far away from home,
G              Am7   D7  G   D7
Miss the Mississippi and you dear.
G                   G7     C            Cm
Days are dark and dreary everywhere I roam,
G              Am7   D7 G
Miss the Mississippi and you.

C                       G
Roamin' the wide world over,
E7      Am7     D7
Always alone and blue, so blue.
G                   G7     C              Cm
Nothing seems to cheer me under heaven's dome,
G              Am7   D7  G
Miss the Mississippi and you.

(Yodel:) C//C//G//G//G//D7//G//G//

Memories are bringing happy days of yore
Miss the Mississippi and you
Mocking birds are singing 'round the cabin door
Miss the Mississippi and you

Roamin' the wide world over
Always alone and blue
Longing for my homeland, muddy water shore
Miss the Mississippi and you
